5. VISIT TO ROYAL ŁAZIENKI PARK

The last king of Poland, Stanisław August Poniatowski, has built his residence in a classical garden in the then suburbs of Warsaw. There, he delved into philosophy, literature and art, and met the finest Polish minds of his time. The visitors will see the Palace on Isle, the king's amphitheatre and the Old Orangery, now an art gallery. The Orangery hides a treasure – the only remaining fully wooden theatre hall in this part of Europe, decorated with exceptional paintings and sculptures.

7. CHOPIN MUSIC CONCERT

No visit to Warsaw is complete without listening to Chopin's music. He is one of the most recognizable Poles around the world, his music tells of his love for the country during the turbulent 19th century. This part of the programme takes the visitors to exquisite interiors of former art galleries or tenement houses in the vicinity of the Old Town. Concerts organizers: Time for Chopin, Chopin Point, Presto Agency.

8. NIGHTLIFE IN WARSAW

Warsaw boasts a robust nightlife, from clubs like Panorama Sky Bar, located on a tower rooftop right in the city centre, to a plethora of bars and pubs. Whether you are looking for a good drink or a dance floor just enter one of the gates by the Royal Route, or visit the riverside district of Warsaw – Powiśle, and you will be surprised how much the city reveals at night.
