ZOO

Named after Antonina and Jan Żabiński in Warsaw is a green island in the middle of the city. This is a place with unique history: it was officially opened to the public on March 11, 1928. Today, over 12,000 animals (including 9,000 fish) of more than 500 species live in the 40 hectares of the park. There are 10 year-round pavilions in the ZOO: Aquarium, Aviary with Free Flights Hall, Monkey House, Pavilion for Apes, Elephant House, Rhinoceros Building, Herpetarium, Giraffe House, Invertebrate Pavilion and Hippopotamus House. We invite you to visit the original interiors of Willa Żabiński (the Villa Under the Crazy Star), a place that has become a home and shelter for dozens of persecuted people.

THE UNIVERSITY OF WARSAW BOTANIC GARDEN

The University of Warsaw Botanic Garden was founded in 1818. It is one of the oldest and smallest botanical gardens in Poland. It is situated in the central and historical area of the capital – the Royal Route – neighboring Łazienki Park. The Garden's unique atmosphere is created by majestic, monumental trees. Some of them, like the ginkgo, are more than 200 years old. The tropical plant collections are gathered in greenhouses with different climatic conditions. We are an important educational institution. We popularize science and knowledge about Polish and world flora. We aim to inspire visitors to discover and protect the nature around them.

PIASECZNO NARROW-GAUGE RAILWAY

An unforgettable railway adventure quite close to Warsaw? All you have to do is to visit Piaseczno to indulge in the pleasure of riding an old train. Piaseczno is a town located 18 kilometers from the center of Warsaw. You can easily get there by public transport bus or regional train. The narrow-gauge railway station is a historic place, the brick buildings hide many technical curiosities related to the railway. Historic trains leave from the station called Piaseczno Miasto. During the trip, a picnic is organized on the huge green glade where you can play darts, play football or go for a walk in the forest. The campsite is also an ideal place to spread a blanket and rest. You can also bake sausages on a fire. The trip lasts approximately five hours and passengers return by train to the same station from which they departed.
